Pathfinder Society

The Pathfinder Society is a globe-spanning organization based out of Absalom, the City at the Center of the World. The membership consists primarily of Pathfinders, adventurers who travel throughout Golarion—usually inconspicuously—and explore, delve, and otherwise experience the lesser-seen parts of the world.

Pathfinder Lodge

Pathfinder lodges, also known as chapter houses, are accommodations used to house its members and research. They can be found around the world wherever adventure can be had.

The party has found one such a place: the Gray Falls Lodge, a facility dedicated to researching the fey in the River Kingdoms.
